The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons provide the defendant with necessary drug addiction treatment to include a 500-hour drug treatment program.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Nicholas Herndon, is hereby committed on Count 18 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of TWENTY-EIGHT (28) MONTHS. 5. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer; and
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court recommends, but does not order, that defendant serve his term at a facility located in Arizona.

The Government dismisses all remaining counts against defendant Nicholas Herndon only.

The Court advises defendant of his right to an appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
